I interviewed Sarah Weddington by email. Sarah Weddington was the winning attorney in Roe v. Wade. I used her responses for quotes around my website and information on my website pages.

Magazines

Diamonstein, Barbaralee. "We Have Had Abortions." Ms. (magazine). Liberty Media for Women, Jan.1972: 34-35. Web. 28 Feb. 2016

This magazine article it showed a type of petition to repeal the abortion laws at the time. The petition was for any woman who had an illegal abortion procedure done on them or ones they performed themselves. It encouraged women who had these illegal abortions to sign the petition and get the government aware that they wanted change.

Newspapers

Degnan, Daniel A. "The Supreme Court as Moral Arbiter." New York Times. New York Times, 10 Mar. 1973. Web. 29 Feb. 2016.

This article was written by a Catholic priest and law teacher about his reaction to the Roe v. Wade decision. He expresses his beliefs and opinions on abortion, and how he is against it. Also expresses the morality of the decision the court made.

"Excerpts From Abortion Case." New York Times. New York Times, 23 Jan. 1973: 20. Web. 22 Feb. 2016.

This is a newspaper article from the day after the Roe v. Wade decision was decided. It included the majority opinion from Justice Harry A. Blackmun, and the dissent from Justice Byron R. White. I used it for the immediate reaction section on my website.

"Letters to the Editor: Of Abortion, Manslaughter and the Case of Dr. Edelin." New York Times 27 Feb. 1975: n. pag. Web. 28 Feb. 2016.

This article contains different points of view on a court case with Dr. Edelin. Dr Edelin was a doctor that performed a legal abortion on a woman and in the result her baby was thought to be dead, but wasn't. Therefore, he was tried with manslaughter, and this article contained the reaction to the ruling.

This article is about the Roe v. Wade and Doe v. Bolton court cases. It describes what the cases were about. Also explained what both sides of the cases thought about their position.

Websites

Reaves, Jessica. "Interview: Sarah Weddington." Time. Time Inc., 16 Jan. 2003. Web. 23 Feb. 2016.

On this website it provides an interview with Sarah Weddington. It talks about all aspects of the case, from before to during to after. I used the information for background, historical context, and impact resources.

"Roe v. Wade." Oyez. Chicago-Kent College of Law at Illinois Tech, n.d. Jan 29, 2016.

On this website it included basic facts about the court case. It was a primary source because the actual oral argument and reargument of the case was present. I used the argument and reargument for various quotes around my website, and the facts for various pages.

"The Story of Norma McCorvey The Woman Who Became "Jane Roe"" EndRoe. N.p., 2015. Web.

This website brought Norma McCorvey's thoughts and opinions to my website. It includes how she felt immediately after the ruling, and how her stance changed completely over many years. It informed me that she had an amazing change of heart, and is now working even harder to undo Roe v. Wade. This website is primary due to its large amount of information from McCorvey's autobiography Won By Love.

"Winning Roe v. Wade: Q&A with Sarah Weddington | TIME.com." US Winning Roe v Wade QA with Sarah Weddington Comments. N.p., n.d. Web. 23 Feb. 2016.

On this page there is an interview with Sarah Weddington. Also there is select court case audio from Sarah Weddington and some Justices. I used the audio to pull quotes for my website pages.

Video

Norma (Jane Roe). Perf. Norma McCorvey. Catholics Come Home and Virtue Media, 2013.

In this video, Norma McCorvey, formally known as Jane Roe, describes who she was before Roe v. Wade, and how she has changed over the years. Norma tells how she views abortion today, and what she is doing to change Roe v. Wade.

"1973 CBS Evening News with Walter Cronkite (1/22/73)." YouTube. YouTube, 12 Sept. 2012. Web. 15 Feb. 2016.

This video is from the evening news cast that the Roe v. Wade decision was announced. I used parts of this video in the encounter and impact section of my website. It included different reactions to the case, and explained what the decision was.

Secondary Sources

Books

Greenhouse, Linda, and Reva B. Siegel. Before Roe v. Wade: Voices That Shaped the Abortion Debate before the Supreme Court's Ruling. New York: Kaplan Pub., 2010. Print.

This book contributes many personal accounts of women having abortions, and how they went about having abortions before Roe v. Wade. There are also many accounts of the struggle to keep the laws, that prohibited abortion in many ways. This book was very balanced in the views all across the spectrum of the abortion issue.

Stevens, Leonard A. The Case of Roe v. Wade. New York: G.P. Putnam's Sons, 1996. Print.

This book contained an overview of the entire case of Roe v. Wade. It covered everything from before the ruling to the current stance after the ruling. It really covered many topics that were discussed on my website.

Newspapers

Eckholm, Erik. "Supreme Court Abortion Case Seen as a Turning Point for Clinics." The New York Times. The New York Times, 24 Feb. 2016. Web. 26 Feb. 2016.

When I contacted Sarah Weddington she directed me to this article that is about a current abortion situation before the Supreme Court. This informed me about current abortion issues. It helped me add up to date information on my timeline.

Videos

Landmark Cases: Roe v. Wade- Historical Context. Perf. Clarke Forsythe and Melissa Murray. C-SPAN, 2015. Video.

This video helped me understand the historical context of Roe v. Wade. It describes the drastic events and movements that were taking place before Roe v. Wade. It also explains why it was a good time for the case to be brought to the Supreme Court.

Roe v. Wade in PBS' The Supreme Court. YouTube. PBS, 1 Dec. 2008. Web. 28 Feb. 2016.

In this video people discussed what Roe v. Wade was and how it impacted the United States. It showed the differing opinions and beliefs between the two sides. I used a section of this video on my website, on my Historical Tension to Roe v. Wade.

Websites

"Lessons from Before Roe: Will Past Be Prologue?" Lessons from Before Roe: Will Past Be Prologue? N.p., n.d. Web. 25 Jan. 2016.

This website shows the facts and statistics of what it was like prior to Roe v. Wade. It provides support for what it was truly like before the court ruling. The website brought numbers and recorded data to my website.

NPR. NPR, n.d. Web. 28 Jan. 2016.

On this website it provides a timeline of events that led up to the ruling and after. It includes other court cases similar to Roe v. Wade. The timeline created a structure for what was going on in the time before and after the decision was made.

"People & Events: Margaret Sanger (1879-1966)." The Pill. PBS, 1999-2001. Web.

This website provides historical events that were going on prior to Roe v. Wade. The main points I used from the website were about Margaret Sanger, and how she added to the women's rights movement. It helped explain other events that built up to Roe v. Wade.

Press, Associated. "Quotes from the Roe v. Wade Decision." Chicago Tribune. N.p., n.d. Web.

I also used this website for quotes from the Roe v. Wade court case. These quotes included many important people's quotes and thoughts, including Supreme Court Justices. It included a wide variety of people and how they felt about the decision.

Terzo, Sarah. "7 Powerful Quotes from 'Jane Roe' of Roe v. Wade." Live Action News. N.p., n.d. Web.

This website provided many good quotes from Jane Roe, or Norma McCorvey herself. It included what it was like to work in an abortion clinic, and how she truly felt in that environment. It confirmed that an abortion clinic's atmosphere isn't the most desirable place to be, but is rather filled with horror and brutality.

"The Right to an Abortion." The Right to an Abortion. N.p., n.d. Web. 29 Jan. 2016.

On this website it included the arguing points for both Roe and Wade. It gave easy, clear descriptions for the arguments. The site informed me of what both of the sides stood and strived for.

"Timeline of Abortion Laws and Events." Chicagotribune.com. N.p., n.d. Web. 23 Feb. 2016.

This website gave me important events in abortion history. It added more current events to my timeline. It also shows some more recent encounters that have happened since the decision.
